Directions: As children grow up to be teenagers and young adults, they learn more and more about their parents and how their parents are bringing up (or brought up) their sons and daughters. Even grown-up sons and daughters can well describe some of their experiences in their parental families. We would like you to describe some of these experiences. Please read each statement on the following pages and select the answer that most closely describes the way your parent/caregiver acts toward you. When answering these questions, please think about the person who brought you to today's appointment.

Select "NOT LIKE" if you think that the statement describes a person who is NOT LIKE your caregiver.

Select "SOMEWHAT LIKE" if you think that the statement describes a person who is SOMEWHAT LIKE your caregiver.

Select "A LOT LIKE" if you think the statement describes a person who is A LOT LIKE your caregiver.
